LIGHTING OF THE ADVENT CANDLE

Pastor: Jesus said, "I am the light of the world. He who follows me will not walk in darkness, but will have the light of life."

MINISTERS: WHY DO WE LIGHT ONE CANDLE?

Mrs. Eugene Sisinyak and Family: This candle reminds us of the light of hope that the prophets had in their expectation of a Messiah who would bring peace and love to the world.

Pastor: Come, let us worship the Light of the World.

Hymn: No. 108 O Come, O Come, Emmanuel

WE CONFESS OUR SIN

PRAYER OF CONFESSION

Dear Father, we are already feeling the rush of getting ready for Christmas as we plan parties, look for gifts and try to squeeze too many commitments onto our calendars. Forgive us, Father, when we complain about the hassles of the holiday season. If the truth be known, we tire ourselves out and take little if any time to be alone with Thee in prayer.

Help us to rearrange our priorities for we are prone to forget our families, friends and our faith for lesser things. We thank Thee that though our faith

ADVENT VENTURES Next Sunday
"The Christmas Story Told Through the Arts" - presented by the International Institute. Join us in Fellowship Hall at 11:15 for a very informative and entertaining program. Speaker will be Lucille Emch.

MUSIC NOTES

Today's Prelude music presents two compositions by Bradley B. Ridge, Ph.D. - a distinguished psychologist in San Francisco. A member of ASCAP, with some 30 piano compositions to his credit, the "b minor Prelude" was composed in the 1940's when he was only in high school. The "E^b Prelude" (1972) has been adapted by Mrs. Craig for today's first performance on organ.
Among his varied interests, Dr. Ridge also has extensive professional pursuits: in genealogical research, and publications, including the authoratative volume,
The Bateman Connection. And, he happens to be a cousin of organist, Barbara Craig.

The Rose Mary Locke Chorale will present a concert of sacred and secular music on Sunday, November 27 at 8:00 PM at the First Baptist Church of Greater Toledo, Holland-Perrysburg and Pilliod Roads. The concert will feature Bach's Cantata #140, "Sleepers Wake," and a new piece by Mrs. Locke for balloons, pins and pennywhistles titled "1812 Blowup." Greg and Wendy Phlegar will play in the chamber orchestra. Gladys Rudolph is accompanist. The concert is free.

VIGO COUNTY DESCENDANTS OF WILLIAM BATEMAN OF LONDON ENGLAND,
CHARLESTON AND CONCORD, MASSACHUSETTS, AND FAIRFIELD, CONNECTICUT.

Bateman and Joslin lines merge with the marriage of Joseph Thomas Joslin and Sarah Austin(daughter of Priscilla Bateman.)

William L. Bateman

WILLIAM I BATEMAN

WILLIAM I BATEMAN, the earliest of his surname in Massachusetts, came, doubtless, with Governor Winthrop in 1630 (Savage 1:1370. He did appear to be the "Mr. Bateman" who was a deputy to the "General Court held for the Company of the Massachusetts Bay in New England, at the Deputies House," in London 29 September 1629 (MA Col Rec 1:52). On 18 September 1630 Mr. Bateman was present at the inquest held at Charlestown (MA) upon the body of another William Bateman who had died of exposure near Pullen Point about a week previously (MA Col Rec. 1:78).

For a time he was at Charlestown, where he took the oath of freeman 18 May 1631 (MA Col. Rec. 1:366). (List of Freeman, Massachusetts Bay Colony by H.F. Andrews, Exira Printing Co. 1906) and where in 1638 he was granted "a planting ground, when the Indians are satisfied" (Wyman). Later, however, he was of Concord in the same colony but removed to Fairfield, CT., with the Rev John Jones and most of his Concord congregation in or about 1644, and there died in 1658, having had a grant of land at Fairfield in 1649 (Hinman, 151). (Manwaring, C.W.; A Digest of the Early CT Probate Records; R S. Peck & Co, 1904, 1:87; See also Vol 2 of Lands, p 43, in the Office of the Secretary at State of CT). His will of 24 March 1656 gave L5 to "grandson Joseph Middlebrook, " half of his estate to son Thomas 2 Bateman, "now of Concord," and the other half of his estate to his son-in-law, Henry Lyon.

The name of his wife whom he married in England has not yet been ascertained.

While Mackenzie cites Suffolk as probably the Bateman ancestral home, Leach, also attempts to bridge the Atlantic Ocean and to extend the Bateman pedigree by finding a suitable father for William:

"The will of William Bateman, citizen of London, parish of St. Katherine Creechurch in London, dated 15 Mar 28, Elizabeth I proved 25 June 1586, named children Robert, Leonard, William and Margaret, not of age, brother Roger Bateman and his son Thomas Bateman, brother Richard Bateman, cousin Thomas Juxon, etc. The names of the legatees, other connections and friends therein named, some of whom were later in Massachusetts, suggests the probability that the testator was father of William Bateman of London, England, Charlestown and Concord, Massachusetts, and Fairfield, CT."

(Note: In his corrigenda, Mackenzie (5:725) states that there is no foundation for William, Esq., citizen of London, to be named the father of William. He believes the family to have come from Ipswich, Suffolk County, England. This family bore for arms: Sable, three crescents, two and one, ermine within a border engrailed argent (Cleveland, 3:1563; MacKenzie, 5:48). There is also a listing of two Bateman pedigrees from Yorkshire, England (NEHGR, 11:264). Fairbain (39) lists 20 crsts for the name Bateman (Fairbain's Book of Crests of the Families of Great Britain and Ireland, Baltimore Heraldic Book Co, 1968, p39)

Burke lists 22 coats of arms

Burke lists 22 coats of arms. (Burk, Sir Bernard; The General Armory of England, Scotland, Ireland and Wales, London, Harrison, 59 Pall Mall, 1884.)

WILLIAM BATEMAN, citizen, bricklayer and tiler of London 15 March 28 Elizabeth, with a codicil dated 16 March 1585, proved 25 June 1586. To be buried within the parish church of St. Katherine Creechurch in London, where I am now a parishioner, near the body of my late wife. After debts and duties paid or set in order my goods shall be divided into three equal parts, whereof one part I give to Alice () my now wife, to her own proper use forever, one other part I give and bequeath to and amongst my childre, viz't., Robert, Leonard, William, and Margaret Bateman, equally amongst them to be divided, and to be paid and delivered to them at such time as they shall accomplish and come to their several ages of one and twenty years or days of marriage, which shall first happen, and the third part I do reserve unto myself and unto my executor, to pay and discharge my legacies and bequests. The poor of this parish. M^{rs} Mabel Ward, my mother, and Mary Bateman, now dwelling with me, and Alice Ward, my sister's daughter, and Thomas Bateman, my brother Roger Bateman his son. I forgive and discharge my said brother Roger all such debts and duties as he shall owe unto me at the time of my decease. To my brother Richard my old livery gown, being un lined, and ten shillings in money and to Hellene() his wife my night gown which I do most commonly use to wear and also ten shillings in money. The company of Bricklayers and Tilers whereof I am a member, for recreation and drinking, they to go with my body to the burial. Robert Hunter who married my wife's sister, and Elizabeth () his now wife and their three children. My cousin Thomas Juxon of London merchant tailor. Richard Kirby carpenter. The overseers to be my loving friends John Jackman of London grocer and Andrew Marshe of London draper. Certain freehold lands, messuages & C. at Limehouse. Two messuages in St. Stephens Coleman Street. Thomas Juxon son of my said cousin Thomas Juxon. My tenants in Lillepot Alley."

(Windsor, 31)

"Sententia absolutoria in negotio compi bonorum Willmi Bateman defunct, was promulgated 6 June 1592 following upon litigation between Robert Bateman, of one part, and Thomas Juxon, executor, of the other part.

(Harrington, 49)"
(NEHGR 52:105)

The fact that a Mr. Bateman was a deputy to the "General Court held for the Company of the Massachusetts Bay in New England, at the Deputies House," in London, 28 Sept 1629, and that a William Bateman was of record in Massachusetts on 18 Sept 1630, point to the clear and certain possibility that they are one and the same person.

William I Bateman took the oath of freeman at Boston on 2 June 1640 (NEHGR 3:188), the General Court having revoked the former oath of freeman on 14 May 1634. (List of Freemen Massachusetts Bay Volony, by H. F. Andrews, Exira Printing Co, 1906).

William Bateman I, the subject of this sketch was a native of England and probably born about 1590, as his son Thomas was born in 1614. He was a deputy to the General Court held for Massachusetts Bay in 1629 and came to Boston with Governor Winthrop in 1631." (MAG, Dec 1934, 23).

A William Bateman was admitted Freeman in the Massachusetts Bay Colony May 18, 1631, and an inquest on his death was taken at Charlestown, Sept 18 of the same year. Several writers state he was the father of our subject while others have confused the two men. The book, Records of the Court of Assistants of the Colony of the Massachusetts Bay, 1630-92, 1904 (2:25, 153) lists him, Sergeant Bateman, as a defendant in court there on 5 June 1632.

He was in Charlestown in 1638 when he received a grant of land and he is recorded later at Concord. On 2 June 1641 he was admitted a freeman of the Massachusetts Bay Colony. He removed to Fairfield, CT, presumably with the Jones party in 1644. On 28 January 1649-50, he entered for record a grant of 2½ acres which he received from the town, also a tract purchased of Thomas Sherwood and a lot at Barrow's Plain.

No record has been found for his wife, but we suppose her death occurred before 1652, when his daughter was married to Henry Lyon, for Elizabeth stayed home after her marriage. On 4 Feb. 1654, William I Bateman sold his homelot and dwelling house in Fairfield to Henry Lyon. His will, which is still extant, was executed in Fairfield 24 Mar. 1656 and was proved 20 Oct 1658. His will was executed in the presence of Andrew and William Ward. He gave one half of his estate to hi son, Thomas, and the other half to his son-in-law, Henry Lyon, who was appointed executor, except L5 which his grandchild, Joseph Middlebrook was to have at 18 years. (Fairfield Probate Records, Hartford, CT, 1:36) (Jacobus, Old Fairfield, L: 38, 393)

Wheeler (110), a Concord writer, describes William I Bateman as a "first settler" of Concord and indicates that he is memorialized in the Public Library of Fairfield, CT as a "Concord Planter." The others from Concord in 1644 so memorialized on the Fairfield tablet are: The Rev. John Jones, Thomas Bulkley, Thomas Jones, John Tompkins, Daniel Bulkley, Joseph Middlebrook, Ephraim Wheeler, Thomas Wheeler, Jr, William Odell, James Bennett, Richard Lettiss, John Ebats, Peter Johnson, George Squire, and Benjamin Turney.

Wheeler describes the first homelot of William I Bateman in Concord as being located next to the mill pond. She states that it was bought by Michael Wood and later sold to Thomas Dane. She assumes that the land Hanna Dane sold to Thomas Brown in 1667 was a part of the first William I Bateman grant as he sold out to Thomad Dane. William I Bateman also owned 8 acres of meadow land "east of Luke Potter between the Bay Road and Samuel Stratton's (on Walden Street). She states this land was later owned by Ralph Waldo Emerson

Thomas Z Bateman

THOMAS 2 BATEMANN

Thomas 2 Bateman, was the son of William I Bateman and presumably came with his father and the rest of the family from England in 1630 and settled in Concord, Ma., where he took the oath of freeman on 18 May 1642 (NEGH, 3: 189; MCR 1:292) Shattuck (363) states that he settled "easterly of Humphrey Hunts" (who was a citizen of the Concord of 1835). Thomas 2 is also of record in Walcott's "The Concord in the Colonial Period" (40,83,70,76,88). On 22 August 1653, Thomas 2 among others signed the famous "Agreement made and agreed upon by the town and church of Concord concerning the college at Cambridge" (to give money yearly to support Harvard) (Pope, 1915, VII, VIII) His very legible signature has been preserved on this document. (Pope, 1915, IV)

Service on the town 'committee or council of Concord is indicated in the following way: Thomas 2 (and Joseph Middlebrook among others signed a formal petition listing certain grievances "for the rest of us" from Concord to Governor and Deputy Governor which was officially presented to them on 14 May 1645 (Shattuck, 17)

In addition, Thomas 2 was chosen Overseer (with John Smedley) for the North Ward of Concord. The document with all nine parties empowered to form the three quarters in the town of Concord was signed on the "7th of the 1st month 1654" (Shattuck 35).

As a Proprietor in the Town of Concord, he gave a description of his land for the Tax List of 1666 as having 7 lots or 246 acres and as living north, near Reuben French. (Shattuck 37)

On January 1654, Thomas 2 witnessed the will of Robert Best of Sudberry (Nemiah Hunt, also a witness, was a nephew of Robert Best (NEHGR, 17:155) and on 26 February 1658, he witnessed the will of Rev. Peter Bulkley at Concord (NEHGR, 10:169) He was the "Overseer in the will of Thomas Fox of Concord, 25 January 1657-58 (Fox 3:10, 5:11, 7:7, 8:11) In a "document" (Fox 7:11) Thomas 2 and his son Eleazer 3 were called by David Fox, "kinsmen". This is due in part to the fact that Martha Brooks, the wife of Thomas 2 Bateman was a sister to Hannah Brooks, the wife of Thomas Fox (Snow 283) (Preston 47)

Thomas 2 was named in his father's will dated 24 March 1656 as "now of Concord". He received half of his father's estate. (Savage 1:137) Lists Martha (wife) sons Thomas, Peter (dec'd) John, and (incorrectly) "benezer" (for Eleazer) and daughters Martha, Elizabeth and Sarah.

Margaret Knight was the second wife of Thomas 2 Bateman (Bailey MA. 3:37) (Concord 14)

Martha Brooks, the first wife of Thomas 2 Bateman and mother of his children was a daughter of Henry Brooks of Concord and Woburn (McKenzie, 5:88; Snow, 282-285)

In 1654, Thomas 2 was given by Concord (Town Records (1:164) an additional 15 acres of land "because it was thought he had not received a fair share in the first division." (Wheeler, 112)

In the original houselot of Thomas recorded in 1666, he held 14 acres bounded on the east by William Hunt, on the west by Isaac Hunt, on the south by the highway, and on the north by ~~Hunt and the Twenty Score by H~~ also had "8 acres westward from Mr. Spencer's brook," and 8 acres in pine plain, "154 acres of meadow and upland bounded south by his pond and Baptis (sec) Smedley and that trace known as the 20 score." The pond here mentioned is still (1964) called "Bateman's Pond." It was some 30 acres in size (Shattuck, 200). He also had an 11 acre meadow west of the millbrook, bounded on the north by The Great River. This last was, of course, across the river from his houselot, and since he did not own the meadow south of the road his son and heir John 4 offered to buy it from the town and the sale was agreed to by the town at the town meeting. However, he died before the transaction was completed (Wheeler, 111).

John 3 Bateman 3

JOHN 3 BATEMAN

John 3 Bateman served from Woburn in the Great Swamp Fight in King Philip's War. (Swell, 113) (Wheeler 1964) reference #13,123) For service under Major Willard of Concord at Brookfield, John Bateman was paid 03:15:00 on 19 October 1675, and on 20 November 1675, he received 03: 00:00. (Bodgel22) (NEHGR, 38:220)

On 24 August 1676 he was on duty at Woburn under Captain Joseph Syll (NEHGR) 43:262, 279) and paid 02:07:00 (NEHGR 38:220)

On 23 September 1676, he served "in the garrison" at Chelmsford (Bodge, 359) (Waters 93) and was paid 07:11:00. John the son of John was born Oct 1664 in Boston (Record Commissioner's Report 9:28)

After leaving Woburn, Ma, John 3 lived on Long Island, N.Y. where his wife, Abigail died before 1697 (LR); he then left for Salem County N.J, where he drew 200 acres on 10 June 1697 (NJA 21;619). His name is listed among others, on the magnificent marker at Cedarville, N.J., (erected to the men who came to south Jersey from Connecticut and NY (NYG&BR 4:100). In Salem Co., he was Overseer of the Roads, Southside of the Cohansey River, 1710-1711 and Constable 1718-1719 (Craig, Geneal Data 2:168, 224, 230.)

PROBLEM TO PROVE THAT JOHN⁴ IS THE SON OF JOHN 3 AND ABIGAIL RICHARDSON.

CHAS. SHEPHERD SHOWS ON HIS CHARTS THE JOHN 4 HAD BROTHERS
JOB AND THOMAS. Also in SHEPHERD'S COLLECTION IS JOHN'S ACCOUNT BOOK RECORD IN WHICH JOHN 4 MENTIONS HIS BROTHERS
THOMAS AND JOB AND HIS DAUGHTER PRICILLA ASTIN.

FROM BRADLEY RIDGES BOOK ON THE BATEMAN CONNECTION:

John Bateman was married twice. His first wife was Abigail Richardson by whom he had the following children: Abigail, Abigail, John, Elizabeth, William, William. and Peter. His second marriage was to Rebecca by whom he had the following children: Thomas, Job, Joseph, Timothy, Daniel.

CONCLUSION

JOHN BATEMAN ³ AND ABIGAIL RICHARDSON WERE THE PARENTS OF JOHN BATEMAN ⁴: JOHN BATEMAN ⁴ WAS ONLY A HALF BROTHER

John 3 Bateman served from Woburn in the Great Swamp Fight in Philip's War. (Sewall, 113) (Wheeler, 1964) reference 3,123). For service under Major Willard of Concord at Brookfield, John Bateman was paid 03:15:00 in 19 October 1675, and on November 1675, he received 03:00:00. (Bodge, 122) (NEHGR, 220)

On 24 August 1676, he was on duty at Woburn under Captain
Joseph Syll (NEHGR 43:262,279) and was paid 02:07:00 (Bodge, 274) NEHGR, 41:409) for this service.

On 23 September 1676, he served "in the garrison" at Chelmsford (Bodge, 359) (Waters, 93) and was paid 07:11:00.

On 24 August 1667, at "Wooborn-Town," John Bateman drew 00 (Bodge, 376) (NEHGR, 43:279). If this reference is a application of the one in Bodge (274), then there is but one John Bateman." If, in fact, there were two John Batemans in military service on 24 August 1667, the "other" John is the son John and Hannah (_____) Bateman of Boston. John, the son John, was born Oct 1644 in Boston (Record Commissioner's Report, 9:28).

After leaving Woburn, MA, John 3 lived on Long Island, NY, where his wife, Abigail died before 1697 (LR); he then left for Salem County, NJ, where he drew 200 acres on 10 June 1697 (NJA 1:619). His name is listed, among others, on the magnificent marker at Cedarville, NJ, erected to the men who came to South Jersey from Connecticut and NY (NYG&BR,4:110). In Salem Co, he was Overseer of the Roads, Southside of the Cohansey River, 1710-11, and Constable, 1718-1719 (Craig, Geneal Data 2:168, 224, 230)

LETTERS & NOTES

Sorry, I failed to include this with my recent letter.

R. Barber

Dear Mr Barber:

Thank you for the envelope. I'm returning it as I hope to do a great deal of correspondence with you. Also, good news. I do have a record of your Priscilla who married the — Auction. I do not have a record of the other 2 marriages. Also, do you know which John is the father of Prilla who married a The Asestin? The original John to Cumberland Co had 8 sons or 2 recall. Each of those sons could have had a son John!

I would very much like to have your Vigo Co, IN data and I'm enclosing another form for your convenience. Thank you for your help. Sincerely,
Fred Edge

Dear Mrs Barbie:

Gosh! - ^{such an} abundance of good data put together so well. I do appreciate your contribution to my understanding of your branch of the Batemans. We are also distant cousins as my line comes out of Cumberland Co., N.J. through one Joel Bateman who lived there in 1793 and who was last living in Butler Co., OH in 1807 ^{when he walked off the face of the earth & left} no trace. My book represents my attempts to order & catalogue all Bateman, and we had a very early beginning in the William in England in the 29.

Without going into a great deal of detail, much of the below is in the book. Your ancestor John & had three wives Judith Hand was apparently the last of the first wife, the mother of Priscilla the name of the first wife, the mother of Priscilla has not been ascertained. My book shows

has not been ascertained. My book shows John 4 to be the son of John 3 and his first wife Abigail Richardson, but after reading the material again, I question the relationship ship. John 3 in Solem Court Co. N.D. in 1647 and at there were some 11 children in 1697 and at there were some 11 children. I can account for all of the boys. The girl Elizabeth also walked off the face of the earth. The on John 3, Thomas 2 & William 1 are much too extensive to copy for you. And there is no copy of my book to my knowledge at the State Library in Indianapolis. I'll be willing to work with you on determining the strength of the relationship between John 4, your ancestor & John 3. I can assure you that it will be a very interesting correspondence.

All best regards.

Sincerely,
Brod Rudge

Dear Mrs. Barber:

Thank you very much for your letter which was forwarded to me.
I was happy to hear from you & I'll be happy to work with you on your Bateman Quercus from Central and your descent from Pisciella so that I may check all my files.

I have some other data I'll send

Merry Christmas

The image features the words "Merry Christmas" written in a highly decorative, flowing cursive script. The letters are interconnected with elaborate loops and swirls. The text is embellished with several clusters of holly leaves and berries. One cluster is positioned at the top right, another at the bottom left, and a third at the bottom center. The entire design is rendered in white lines against a solid black background.

Dear Ceneria Rula:

I was very relieved to hear from you. I'm terribly sorry that you must move from a home where you've lived for 68 years! That truly is Clatishmic!
I had great trouble in moving here after 3 years,
only, in SF!

I didn't say what you thought of John & John 13, Thomas & William! but I hope you realize the book was not written in one sitting. I'm working on 2 more, but I hope that the first book will pay for itself before I go on to something else. -
All best to you - Sincerely, Ceneria Bree

The Bateman Connection

Bradley B. Ridge

The Bateman Connection is a painstakingly documented record of the descendants of a distinguished New England family with English antecedents. It has been researched and assembled by a scholar intimately associated with that family, who brings to the subject a thoroughly grounded knowledge of genealogy and the behavioral sciences. The volume explores the nature and extent of its dispersal in the mainstream of American life from its base points in Concord, Massachusetts, Killingly, Connecticut and Fairfield (Bridgeton), New Jersey. It also provides a list of references to published English sources by shire on the surname Bateman.

The volume is composed of three indexes: the first index is a detailed listing by given name of each of the known Bateman descendants of William Bateman. Also provided in each case for reference are the names of father, grandfather and great-grandfather. The second index is a list of Bateman wives by first name facilitating research from other family groups. The surname of the wife is included where known. The third index is that of the standard cross reference surname variety which is indispensable in a genealogical reference book.

There are some 194 pages of text showing birth, marriage, death and burial dates and places, as well as the available information on names associated with wills, inventories and administrations. The book contains pedigree charts, and concludes with a 63-page two-column surname index.

Dear Miss Barbee:

Thank you for your interesting letter of 16 July with check for $50.00, authorization for me to proceed on the Bateman research, and pedigree enclosures. I noted the will of John Bateman, the will of Thomas Joslin, and the family group sheets.

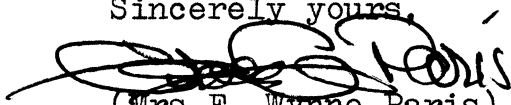

Do you have proof that Priscilla (Bateman) Austin Joslin was ever married to a man named Bennet? She was the grandmother of a young man named Elijah Bennet whose father was named James Bennet. Could not this James Bennet have been the son-in-law of Priscilla Bateman Joslin? Could Elijah Bennet have been the son of Priscilla's daughter? Possibly his mother's maiden name was Austin. Perhaps she was deceased, but even if she had been living at the time of Thomas Joslin's will it would have been her husband James Bennet who would have been the child's guardian.

What was the religious persuasion of these people as far as you know? Methodist, perhaps? Church records, when available are a great help.

The Vineland Historical Antiquarian Society will be closed during August but I will be able to check some Sheppard cards next week. I will not be able to proceed deeply into this research until September.

Thank you again for entrusting this interesting project with me.

Sincerely yours,

(Mrs F. Wynne Paris)

Dear Fanner Cousin Paula:

^{Congratulations}
Congratulations! I was delighted to hear from you and congrats on cracking that old Bateman line in Cumberland Co, New Jersey! It's a tough one!

I am still working on my descent from Joel Bateman who was "over 18 years" in 1793 in the Cumberland Co, N.J. Militia. If you'd be good enough to tell me your researcher's name. I'd like to write her about some research for me. (He was in Cayuga County, N.Y. in 1800 & back in 1803 when he sold land.)

I am enclosing a pedigree chart in case you are inclined to correspond about your line of descent. I

Dear famous Cousin Rula:

Thanks so much for your letter with all the info. It will take me a bit of a while to get through it, but I'll keep you posted.

Thanks also for Mrs. Paris' home & address. I'm going to write! Wish me luck!

Priscilla $, dau of E leager 3 is not your line. E leager 3 remained in CT.

Is it possible for John 4 (John 3) to have lived for 100 years? (I don't have my New Jersey volume unpacked, so I'm talking through my hat! - But, a will dated 21 May 1785 is a LONG way from John 4's birth in 13 Aug 1687 in Woburn! - Do you think?

The statement in John Bateman's Account Book (Exhibit 2) states: "1755 Account of money used by brother Job."

This would make him 85 yrs old at that point. In addition to weaving, he must have had plenty of exercise at The Old Stone Church!

The info you requested in C. Stanley Craig is included in The book, p191 under Craig.

I'm sure that you'll have a sure line if you use either William or Thomas for Colonel Daves. One lady has already done so. Also, Ezekiel Richardson, father of Abigail Richardson, wife of John 3 Bateman is a proponent for Colonial Wars & I believe he was a founder of Woburn, MA, so you have another line there.

Again, Mary Thank.

Sincerely
Brook Ridge

Dear Miss Barbee:

In reply to your letter of August 4th requesting genealogy research information.

I do all my research at the Virginia State Library and the Virginia Historical Society Library in Richmond. The Swem library at the College of William and Mary in Williamsburg and the Charles Taylor library in Newport News.

My fee for genealogy research is ten dollars an hour.

If you want any documents copied or obtained the charge is whatever the library is now charging. I do not charge extra for this service.

I will not be doing any research until November, as it is too hot to travel to Richmond this time of year.

I do need ALL the information you can give me on the family or families you are interested in so as to eliminate duplication of work already done.

I hope that I can be of service to you in the near future.

Sincerely yours,

Patricia Bateman

Dear Rula,

I want to thank you again for the name of Grace Paris, & let you know what tremendous (& unexpected) things she has found in my Harris lineage.

Just to refresh, my gt.-gt.-gt. grandparents are Aaron & Elizabeth (Harris) Bateman, married 1809 in Fairfield, Cumberland Co. NY. They came to Hamilton Co. OH in 1819.

Through NY Archives with at Toledo library I had established 3 preceding generations of the Harris line, & all gave wives' names, so I was curious as to other possible records which might locate maiden names.

I sent all data I knew, & Mrs. Paris was excited & enthused to take on my project, for at that point even the lineage was much more complete than many in NJ. Her price is $100¹² for 8 hrs. searching. With such fine credentials she would surely know where to search.

I've never hired a searcher before, but it would cost me much more than that to go to NJ, & I wouldn't know what holdings are where, or even when I might get there!

I feel what all she found is quite a bargain, & now she is working on a 2nd report for further data.

By the way, they moved to PA about 1½ yrs ago, but maintain NJ P.O. box as many people aren't aware, & they are in NJ frequently. The new address is P.O. Box AM - Swarthmore, PA 19081.

She knew that Sheppard had done Harris research as some of his own line, so that was some basis of her interest, too.

We are now from several early (1600's) families in Easthampton, Long Island - several of whom⁽³⁾ later went to Cumb. Co NJ - Stratton, Preston, Dare.

Grace wants you to know there is a Bennet connection with the Harris's - she says you have Bennett's. For me, this would not be a direct line. Susanook (Bennet) Bateman, widow of Benjamin Bateman was 4th of 5 (!) wives of Jeremiah Harris (b 17⁴⁸) - ~~grandfather~~ ^{father} of my Elizabeth Harris Bateman. I am descended from the 1st wife Rachel Dare (Sorry, I looked at date of wrong generation!)

All maiden names but one generation are now known, & in some we can go back several more generations. She is now working further on some.

Of particular interest is the 5th Harris generation, Thomas, b c 1653 East Hampton LI, NY who married Ruth James. Now, her mother was Ruth Jones, dau of Rev. John Jones who also⁽⁴⁾ came 1630 with Winthrop Fleet & took his group of parishoners from Concord MA to found Fairfield CT, which included our William Bateman I. I never imagined I was also descended from Rev. Jones!

Then, in the James line are 3 preceeding generations of "Reverends", all well schooled in England. Ruth (James) Harris's grandfa. had come to America. He had m. Olive Ingoldsky whose mother is Dorcas Bulkeley, a sister to well-known MA minister, Rev. Peter Bulkeley. They descend from royalty, & this is what Grace Paris is continuing now. She mentioned Elizabeth Brosvenor, grandmother of Dorcas, & says "she goes back to God - but first you get to W^m the Conqueror"!! Grace is terribly excited about all this too! There are at least 5 barons who signed the Magna Carta, direct⁽⁵⁾ descent from English king, Henry II, son of W^m the Conqueror, & other Eng. & Scottish kings.

It will surely be fascinating (to say the least) to learn all this, & be able to prove it!
I never dreamed such things would be found!

Grace thinks Bud would be interested in all this. I wrote her briefly of his misfortunes & rejection of letters. She agreed to write & inform him & I am to send copies of the data, which I'll do soon. We shall see what happens!

My Christmas postcard to him was returned,
however he did neatly fold his notepaper around it (didn't write a word) & put it in an envelope to return it! It is hard to imagine & understand this!

Grace said he is listed in the 1986 "Social so she thinks he's not completely without money. ¹⁶ I'm sure I don't know what his situation is, but he has changed!!

Grace wrote, "When you next get in touch with

Again, I thank you for making me aware of her.

I hope this finds you well. I suppose you're ready for warmer, spring weather, as we all are! My car was hit from behind on Feb. 1 when a man slid on ice. It was quite an impact & we ended in median strip of X-pwy.
I hit my neck & was achy a few days. It all could have been much worse!

Dear Ms Barbee:

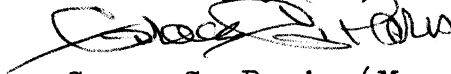

Mrs. Claire Carr of the Vineland Historical and Antiquarian Society of which I am a member referred your letter of 2 March 1982 to me.

We have several Bateman Family genealogical cards from the Charles E. Sheppard Collection at our library. I would be glad to research this family for you, here at the library as well as the Cumberland County Court House, the Cumberland County Library and other repositories.

Although my fee is $10.00 per hour my initial report represents 10 or 11 hours of conscientious research for the price of $50.00 which is my retainer.

When I receive your authorization to procede in this matter with check for $50.00 I will begin my research on the Bateman family for you. You will receive my typewritten report on all my findings complete with bibliography and description of all sources searched.

Cordially yours,

Grace G. Paris (Mrs. F. Wynne)

Dear Miss Barbee:

I have searched diligently local records on the Bateman family but I feel that the results are sparse. Priscilla Bateman was as much a mystery to Charles E. Sheppard as she is to me. He did not even have the date of her birth.

I worked at The Vineland Historical and Antiquarian Society on two different occasions two hours each searching the Charles E. Sheppard Collection for pertinent facts on Bateman, Joslin, Bennett, and Austin families. I looked over their cemetery records, published marriage records, New Jersey published Archives (for wills) and Stanley Craig's Genealogical Data of Salem County. The area in which these people lived was Salem County until 1748 when Cumberland County was erected from a part of it. In studying early families one has to research Salem as well as Cumberland. My husband and I drove over to Cedarville, a small community near Fairfield where the Batemans lived, to study a new collection donated by Mrs. Stanger, a Bateman, in memory of her husband, the late Judge Stanger. This Collection has old record books and diaries going back to 1738. We worked on this data for two hours one evening. I was glad to see The Bateman Connection, by Bradley Ridge. The Vineland Society does not have it nor does The Genealogical Society of Pennsylvania at Philadelphia. At Philadelphia at the above Society I studied the Leach and Mervine Collections. In Ridge's bibliography you will note that he mentions these.

I researched these families for over seven hours because the five hours mentioned were not enough. I do not intend to charge for these extra hours. Sometimes five hours result in a sketchy survey and more work in probate or deeds is necessary. In this case I do not think that is adviseable. In New Jersey we lack vital records. One can only go so far with wills, deeds and census records. There were no official census records in New Jersey until 1830. I should say there are none on record now. They were all destroyed by fire many years ago. Many wills in New Jersey were not recorded. The family kept the will and at the funeral of the testator the will was read and bequests taken care of then and there!

None of the local repositories has Stanley Craig's, Craig-Elmer Genealogy. I need it to study his connection with the Bateman family. Bradley Ridge speaks highly of it. It may be at the archives at Trenton, N.J. Within the next two weeks I will be going to Trenton. At no cost to you I intend to look for it there, cull whatever information there is on Batemans and send the results to you with my compliments. I believe Craig ties in your John Bateman with the Massachusetts progenitor.

Enclosed please find exhibits of my research with comments.

My husband and I research Delaware families at the state capital at Dover at the official archives. The next time we are there I am going to see how copious their files are on the Austin family. Your notes indicate Sarah Austin was born in Delaware.

I wish you luck in your continuing saga of family history!

Sincerely yours

Grace G. Paris

Dear Miss Barbee:

Thank you very much for your good letter of 12 October received today. I have not been to Trenton yet but when I do, the first thing I will look up will be Stanley Craig's Craig-Elmer Genealogy.

In the meantime I have something for you which I discovered in Philadelphia at The Historical Society---a rare leather clad book-hand written-- acopy of records from the old Fairfield Presbyterian Church. What it was doing in Philadelphia, I do not know. They had no records of the Fairfield Church at Vineland and nothing at The Salem Historical Society. I sometimes think there is more on New Jersey history and genealogy in Philadelphia than locally.

Perhaps I could help you with your Price line. I have access to Hunterdon County records at The Bureau of Archives and History at the New Jersey State Library at Trenton. My husband and I are approved genealogists on the list sent out by the Bureau when persons write in and request genealogical help. My husband and I have not been to Trenton in a few weeks because we have been busy on Pennsylvania work and have been on genealogical trips to north western Pennsylvania for clients. However, next week we plan to go to Trenton. Hunterdon County was formed March 11, 1714 set off from Burlington County. In 1739 Morris County was formed cut off from Hunterdon. The Archives have all wills and inventories prior to 1900. Of course they are a great source for tax lists, militia records, state and federal census schedules, old New Jersey newspapers, etc.

It was a pleasure to do what I could on the Bateman family. If I can help with the Price family, let me know.

Sincerely yours,

Grace G. Paris

BATEMAN FAMILY CARDS

JOHN, JOB, AND THOMAS BATEMAN were brothers (see M.H., XI, 360 & 361)

Sheppard has no proof of their parentage.

Brother JOB died in 1760, brother THOMAS died in 1759.

JOHN BATEMAN was a weaver and the first sexton of the Old Stone Church in Fairfield. His son, John, Jr. was the second sexton of the Old Stone Church.

There is no name given for the first wife of JOHN BATEMAN. Sheppard believes the first wife was the mother of all his children. JOHN BATEMAN married 2nd. SARAH LUPTON 21 Aug 1746 proof: marriage license, Salem County.

His third wife was JUDITH HAND (no maiden name given) widow of Daniel Hand. This marriage took place 27 July 1771.

proof: marriage license, Cape May County
Daniel Hand, late husband of Judith Hand died in Cape May County between 2 June 1768 and 5 Aug 1768 (N.J. Archives, XXXIII, 175)
(His will was dated 2 Jun 1768) (proved 6 Aug 1768)

Sheppard mentions JOHN BATEMAN'S will dated 21 May 1785, probated 23 Sept 1786.

Sheppard comments "mentions grandson Thomas but does not say whose son he is" Judith Hand Bateman died in 1794.

Sheppard carries John, Jr.'s family on but knows very little about Helen James, Priscilla Asstin(Austin), Sarah Robinson or Isaac.

PRISCILLA BATEMAN AUSTIN

Sheppard states that "Priscilla Joslin, widow of Thomas in 1794 was grandmother of grandchildren Elijah B ennett and Rachel Bennett. Probably her child by a former husband was the father or mother of those two grandchildren." Sheppard also states that Priscilla had a daughter SARAH AUSTIN.

Sheppard indicates that Priscilla Joslin's former husband may have been an Austin and had a daughter who married James Bennett.

COMMENT: As you can see Sheppard did not discover anything significant about Priscilla.

NOTES FROM THE ATHERTON LEACH COLLECTION
compiled at THE GENEALOGICAL SOCIETY OF PENNSYLVANIA
PHILADELPHIA, PENNSYLVANIA

The Bateman Family in America.

The Bateman name is of considerable antiquity in England. It is believed by the family that the Batemans of New England descended from early Batemans in the county of Suffolk, England. This family was armigerous. The arms which they bore are: Sable, 3 crescents 2 and 1, ermine with a bordure-engrailed argent. For a good reproduction of this coat of arms see: The Cleveland Genealogy, vol.III, p. 1563. For description see: The New England Historical Genealogical Register, a quarterly magazine, Vol 52, p. 105.

WILLIAM BATEMAN, the progenitor, of London, England, Charlestown, and Concord, Mass., as well as Fairfield, Conn. was most likely to have been the son of WILLIAM BATEMAN of London, England who made a will in 1586 naming children and relatives. These names appeared later on records of Massachusetts.

William Bateman married _____?

their children:

1. William 2. Thomas 3. ___? 4. Mary

³
Eleazer Bateman (Thomas² William¹) had a son Thomas⁴ who married a Priscilla. There were several Priscillas after this in this family.

Note: The name Priscilla seems to spelled this way in all notes, descriptions, etc. of this family. In New England from the time of Priscilla Alden of Mayflower fame the name is spelled in the above fashion.

Dear Miss Barbee:

I have finally tracked down The Craig-Elmer Family by Stanley Craig 3 volumes in 1.

On pagelll: WILLIAM BATEMAN, citizen, bricklayer, and tiler of London left a will dated: 15th month of the 28th year of the reign of Elizabeth proved 25 June 1586. He is buried in the Parish of St. Catherine, London. Among his several children is WILLIAM BATEMAN, JR. who came to America with Governor John Winthrop in 1630. Bateman remained in Massachusetts living in the town of Concord.

His son THOMAS BATEMAN, born in England in 1614 accompanied him from England to America. Thomas Bateman died in Concord, Massachusetts 6 February 1669. He married MARTHA _____ (Craig does not know her maiden name but Ridge does). Martha died in Concord 3 August 1665. Thomas married 2d. Margaret Knight on 27 Jan. 1668

JOHN BATEMAN son of Thomas and Martha of Concord, Massachusetts married Abigail Richardson. She was probably the daughter of Theophilus Richardson. He married 2d. Rebecca _____. JOHN BATEMAN WAS ONE OF THE 12 ADVENTURERS WHO CAME TO COHANSEY, N.J. AND PURCHASED LAND IN FAIRFIELD 10 JUNE 1697. HIS ALLOTMENT WAS 200 ACRES. THIS MAN IS DEFINITELY YOUR ANCESTOR. Letters of Administration were granted to Rebecca Bateman, widow (his 2d. wife) 10 August 1726.

According to Stanley Craig John Bateman had a son Peter. Craig was only interested in Peter and he did no research on any other sons. According to Bradley Ridge John Bateman had the following children: Abigail, John Jr. born 13 Aug 1687 at Woburn, Mass., William, Peter. (See Bradley Ridge, p. 77)

Ridge proves with excellent references that Thomas Bateman's wife was Martha Brooks a daughter of Henry Brooks of Concord and Woburn, Mass. Their children were: Hannah, Samuel, Martha, Thomas, Peter and Sarah. John married Abigail Richardson as above.

Ridge has as the children of JOHN BATEMAN AND REBECCA

✓ Thomas died in 1759 married Sarah Fithian ✓ Job died 1760
Joseph died 1789
Timothy died 1779
Daniel died in 1777

According to Ridge your John was JOHN BATEMAN, Jr. son of JOHN BATEMAN and his first wife Abigail Richardson.

Charles Sheppard, local genealogist and historian knew that Job and Thomas were brothers of your John Bateman but he knew nothing of Joseph and Timothy or Daniel.

I do hope that your genealogical work is coming along well. I wish you success for 1983.

Sincerely yours,

Grace G. Paris(Mrs. F. Wynne)

On May 25, 1853 Thomas Bateman, the old sexton of Fairfield Presbyterian Church, 75 years of age says that the sextonship of the Church has been in his family since the congregation occupied the present site. His grandfather, JOHN BATEMAN, was the first sexton; his father JOHN BATEMAN, Jr. was the second and himself the third. He does not have his grandfather's burial records; but his father buried about 500 and himself nearly 1350 (afterwards until his death 70 more). The above Thomas Bateman died 26 Nov 1857 in the 80th year of his age.

Dear Miss Barbee:

Thank you for your interesting letter and my retainer of $50.00 to pay for 5 hours of research on the Price family of Hunterdon paying particular attention to SINGHORST, SINGHURST, etc. I will do the best I can for you and I know that I will put in more than 5 hours. I always do!

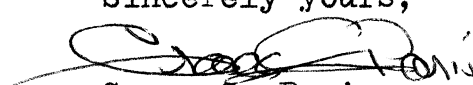

My husband and I are very busy besides being behind in our work due to family illness and hospitalization. Our 92 yr. old uncle who lives with us has been very ill, had an operation, and now is in a nursing home for post operative care. He is almost totally blind, very deaf, and has great difficulty in walking. We go to the nursing home every day to see him, very often this is after a long day's work in Philadelphia or Delaware. Our correspondence has suffered.

I can start your Price work during the second week in February. I'll send you a card when I know the date of sending out the report.

I am going to read up a bit on Theophilus Richardson and Susannah Bradford, also the Brooks family. Massachusetts genealogy is a delight. I am enclosing a list of published genealogies on some of these families.

It is always a pleasure to hear from you. Thank you again for the commission.

Thanks for the envelope. I'm returning it as I hope to do a great deal of correspondence in the year. Also, good news. I do have a record of you Priscilla who married the -----Austin, I do not have record of the other 2 marriages. Also, do you know which John is the father of Priscilla who married 2 the Austin? The original John to Cumberland Co. had 8 sons as I recall. Each of these sons could have had a son John! Dear Ms. Barbee:

Gosh! - Thanks for such an abundance of good data put together so well. I do appreciate your contribution to my understanding of your branch of the Batemans. We are also distant cousins as my line comes out of Cumberland Co., N.J., through one Joel Bateman who lived there in 1793 and who was last living in Butler Co., OH in 1807 when he walked off the face of the earth and left no trace. My book represents my attempts to order & catalogue all Bateman and, we had a very early beginning in the William in England in 1629, be Without going into a great deal of detail much of the below is in the book. Your ancestor John & had three wives, Judith Hand Was apparently the last & she out lived him. The name of the first wife the mother of Priscilla has not been ascertained. My book show John 4 to be the son John 3 and his first wife Abigail Richardson, but after reading the material again, I question the relationship. John 3 lived in Salem, Cumb. Co., N.J. in 1697 and there were some children. I can account for all 10 of the boys. The girl Elizabeth, also walked off the face of the earth. The on John 3, Thomas 2, & William 1 are much too extensive to copy for you, And there is no copy of my book to my knowledge at the State Library in Indianapolis I'll be willing to work with you on determining the strength of the relationship between John 4, your ancestor & John 3. I can assure you that it will be a very interesting correspondence.

All best regards,

Dear Famous Cousin Rula:

Congratulations! I was delighted to hear from you and congrats on cracking that old Bateman line in Cumberland Co., New Jersey! It's a tough one! I am still working on my descent from Joel Bateman who was over 18 years in 1793 in the Cumberland Co., N.J. Militia. If you'd be good enough to tell me your researcher's name. I'd like to write her about some research for me. He was in Cayuga, County, NY in 1800 & back in Bridgeton in 1803 when he sold land!

I am enclosing a pedigree chart in case you are inclined to correspond about your line of descent. I have started with your mother because I believe that you will be able to trace back to Priscilla 5 easily. I don't believe that I have much data on JOHN Jr.4(& he's not covered well in my book) I've covered JOHN 3, Thomas 2 and WILLIAM I, beautifully! Can you help with further data on John Jr 4 & Priscilla 5?

You are probably eligible for The Order of American of armorial Ancestry on The Coat-of-Arms of Henry Brooks. The description of this Coat-of-Arms is in my book in the last paragraph on page 151. I have not used it since I can't get past Joel, but if you want more info on the Order I'll be glad to help. I'm a member! Also, there is a Brooks Family Organization.

If your friend in Colonial Dames needs a copy of my book, I'm down to the last two copies of this printing. Price is 30.00 post paid! Has she seen your copy?

I've moved into larger quarters & am absolutely miserable.
I'm getting up at 5:30 to be in San Francisco, 30 miles away at 7 A M for breakfast & in the office at 7:30-7:45! (Ugh!) I have lots of but I fear the yard is too much me (Ugh, I must be getting old.

I hope this finds you well & happy. Again congrats on that Bateman line!

Sincerely

Cousin Brad

William 1?

Dear Famous Cousin Rula:

Congratulations! I was delighted to hear from you, and, congrats on crackin that old Bateman line in Cumberland Co. New Jersey.- It's a tough one! I am still working on my descent from Joel Bateman who was "over 18 years" in 1793 in the Cumberland Co., N.J. Militia. If you'd be good enough to tell me your researcher's name. I'd like to write her about some research for me! (He was in Cayuga, County, N.J. in 1800 & back in Bridgeton in 1803 when he sold land!

I am enclosing a pedigree chart in case you are inclined to correspone about your line of descent. I have started with your mother because I believe that you will be able to brace back to Pricilla 5 easily. I dont believe that I have much data on John Jr. 4 & Priscilla 5?

or William 1?

Dear Famous Cousin Rula:

Thanks so much for your letter with all the info. It will take me bit of awhile to get through it, but I'll keep you posted.

Thanks also for Mrs. Paris name and address. I'm goin to write! Wish me luck!

Prisill 4, dau of Eleazer 3 is not your line. Eleazer 3 remained in CT.

Is it possible for John 4(John 3) to have lived for 100 years?/(I don't have my New Jersey volume unpacked, so I'm talkin g through my hat).-But, a will dated 21 May 1785 is a lon way from John 4's birth in 13 Aug. 1687 in Woburn! Do you think?

The statement in John Batenab's Account Book (exhibit 2) states "1755 Account of money owed by brother Job." This would make him 85 yrs old at that point.' -----to weaving, he must have had plenty of exercise at the Old Stone Church!

The info you requested in C. Stanley Craig is included in the Book, p 191 under Craig.

I'm sure that you'll have sure line if you use either William or Thomas for Colonial Dames. One lady has already done so Also, Ezekial Richardson, father of Abigail Richardson, wife of John 3 Bateman is a prospect for Colonial Wars & I believe he was a founder of Woburn, MA, so you have another line there

Again, Many Thanks,
Sincerely,
Brad Eidge.

Dear former Cousin Rula:

Thanks for your card. Glad to hear from you and am glad that you are interested in The Brook Family Association. At the time I joined, it was located in Kansas, but at the present time, I believe that Elizabeth Shown Mills, CG, FASG, 107 Woodridge Tuscaloosa, AL 35406 is the new President (or Secretary). She may remember me, as we corresponded several years ago. The Brook Family has a coat-of-arms, so you are also eligible for Order of American of American Ancestry. At the time I joined The dues for a life membership were ^{£ 5.00}.

I've found another John 3 Coresin in Toledo, OH. She's overjoyed with her Bateman Society. Her people settled in SW Ohio to SE Indiana about 1820. By then, my "people", Joel Bateman from Bridgeton had already left & were in LA. I've not yet heard from Mrs. Paris, but I did talk to her on the phone. She will try to close the gap between John 3 & Joel Bateman. (I'm so tired of trying !!)

Well, we are almost out of the worst winter ever. It rained constantly & I even had a frog in the back yard that eluded the cats due to the depth of the water! - Ugh! - I may return to SF as this "Country" living is too much! -
All best.

Dear Mr. Currier Rula:

Sorry about the lost letter. I guess I wasn't quite recovered from my heart surgery. — The current address for Brooks Family is

Madeline S. Mills, Editor, 3348

W 83rd Place, Tulsa, OK 74136.

When I joined, the dues were 3⁰⁰ per year. I'm not sure what they are now. If you do join & want to try out

The Brooks Coat - of - Arms, I'll be glad to recommend you for Order of American of Armorial Ancestry.

I think the dues are 50⁰⁰ for life with the right to nominate a successor.

I did recommend you for The Hereditary

Register or I think all of John 3
Bateman's Cousins should be in there.
We have a new John 3 Cousin by The name of Mrs. Barbara S. Craig
(Mrs. Gerald), 5217 Cookridge Drive Toledo, OH 43623. She is a member of DAR, but would like to join Brooke Family. I took the liberty (my apologies) of giving her your address saying that you were a jump ahead of her. I sent her the correct address last week, so she may be a jump ahead of you. I also nominated her for Hereditary Register. Our other cousin, William Marshall 10, is in the book but he's not out of John 3, unfortunately.
I hope this finds you & yours
well & happy -
All best,

Dear Cousin Paula:

Good news! I finally had time to check in The Society of Colonial Dames of The XVIIth Century. William (1) Bateman is listed in The 1982 publication of That Society on page 18. He is described as a "freeman" & "handowner". In addition, he was also a freender among others, of both Concord, MA and Fairfield, CT. He is listed in The above book as residing in both places. I believe another cousin has already "used" both William 1 & his surviving son, Thomas 2, who was listed as a Proprietor of Concord in 1666 with 246 Acres. He also was a subscriber to The College at Cambridge (Harvard). He was freeman in 18 May 1642. Also, I would guess that John 3 would also qualify in case you are willing to fill out an additional supplemental - He served from Woburn in King Phillip's War in The Great Swamp fight of 1675. He drew 200 Acres in 1697 & was also Constable in 1718-19. So he qualifies, too. Gosh, you've got good ancestry!! I would also guess that Ezekiel Richardson will also qualify you in The above society! - Have you ever found out anything more

Dear Crin Rula:

Thank you so much for your letter & also the opportunity to read about you in the paper. - Congrats to you, your ingenuity, your accomplishments, & your family!

I am "fine," - up, around, & about, but my energy can run out very quickly. I've decided I'm finished & am looking for a way to sit down gracefully & keep up the garden, - or you do - I'm "awash" in tomatoes there are so many of them.

Please be patient about the Daughters & Son of the 17th Century. Barbara Craig told me that Wm Batenon is mentioned as a Proprietor in the new "Directory." Also, another Crin also turned in a supplement on Thomas 2 after using William 1. The reason things are taking so long is because The "dear Daughter" who should be reading & processing your application is digging in her garden trying to decide if The Carlton Doffdill should go next to The Acta doffdill or The Mrs.

Bockhouse. Don't worry. She'll get around to it. -
She do need your money! (Old Jewish proverb: Rich or Poor,
- Money always helps!))

Well, I did talk to Mrs. Paris. She is "optimistic" about Joel Bateman, but I've not heard from her except for a brief note last month. She says she's got a few new ideas, etc. I really don't think there is much chance to locate Joel in Bridgeton, because he was lost in Butler Co, OH in 1807. Also, His son Carlton settled in 1820 in Franklin Co, IN. The youngest son, Noah, in Hendricks Co, IN in 1823. I secretly believe, & I've not told Mrs. Paris, but I believe Joel's father to have been named John, & there were 2 (or 3) other Johns in addition to your John & in Bridgeton.
I'd really like to have some "clarification" on that point.
I like Mrs. P. & I have more for her to do.

All best.

Dear Rula,

May I introduce myself by saying your name was sent me by our mutual cousin, Brad Ridge. I, too, am a Bateman descendant, from John 3.

My dad's mother was a Bateman, descended from Aaron (b) & Elizabeth (Harris) who "went West" ca. 1820. This line obviously became lost after that.

"West" was downriver from Cincinnati at mouth of Gr. Miami River into the Ohio. Aaron operated tavern, & ferry across river, & was flatboatman on Ohio River.

I just recently located a woman who is local historian in that North Bend area — she saw to it that Aaron & Elizabeth's tombstones were preserved & will take me to find them this summer!

I became aware of The Bateman Connection last fall, then had all sorts of problems trying to locate it, with Brad's various moves. I finally "found" him, at his business, just about a month ago, only to learn he'd had a heart attack 2 days before (on Apr. 18) & was in hospital. I sent card & letter of introduction, & he answered as soon as he got home. Since then we've corresponded several times, & have become acquainted over the phone. I received my book just last week! I have never seen such a book so thoroughly done — it is hard to imagine the extensive time he spent on such an authoritative volume!

The last letter from Brad told of you, & that you have joined Colonial Dames, & several family associations. (I'm in DAR on another line.) He says you could probably help me with the Brooks family, & other lines of which I knew nothing until his book.

Brad also thought it would be appropriate for me to mention to you about his hospitalization, as he had corresponded with you recently, but didn't tell you. Well, I can add to that now, also. He was doing "fairly well" — the heart attack was a warning, as there is a history of such in his Ridge family. A week ago Sunday he went back into hospital for test on Mon. —

there were several weak spots on outside of heart — & then had heart surgery last Wed. May 18 — just a month to the day from his coronary! He thinks they did at least 3 bypasses — maybe more.

I talked with him Sun. afternoon — he had gone into a room from ICU late Sat. & is doing alright — will probably go home Wed., then take it easy for awhile.

Well, I'm sure that news was rather a surprise, but we can be thankful they became aware of the problem & took care of it in time. Hopefully now he'll be "good as new".

My dad is from Connersville, IND. (Fayette Co.) & still has a brother & sister living there, & cousins.

That beautiful area is sort of like a second home to me — the farm was always such fun as a child visiting there. I have many lines there.

I feel so fortunate with the extensive amount I've found now on my Bateman's. We can surely be justly proud of our heritage.

I'll enclose a brief outline of my direct lineage to your interest.

I hope to hear from you soon, & whatever it is.

And thanks you can tell me about the Brooks family⁽⁴⁾
& the Coat-of-Arms, & other lines.

Thankx much for any help you can offer!

It's nice to find another "new" Cousin!

Sincerely,

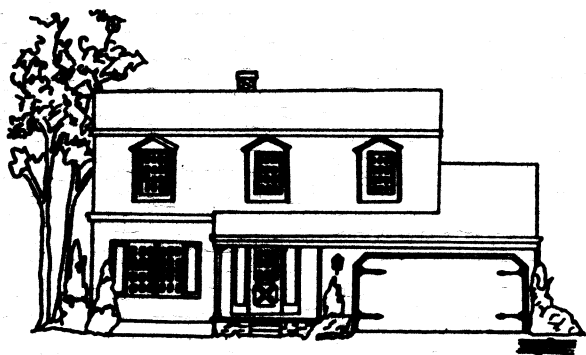

Barbara J. Craig
(Mrs. Gerald E. Craig)

P.S. And also said he gave you wrong address for Brooks Family Association. It should be:

Dear Rula,

I was glad to receive your letter, & your lineage.
Please excuse me for taking so long to reply!

I'm a musician, so was involved in some spring concerts, & being an organist, have had many services, weddings & funerals to play for. We also had a daughter graduate from high school, then last week she left for the Navy. So, the schedule has been busy!

I don't know if Brad has written any more details of his surgery. He had 7 by-passes! The doctor told him he would not have lived more than 6 mos. without the surgery! That is frightening!

He is "coming along" but it is slow, & so hard for him not to want to try & do more — he realizes he must "go slow" — it amazes him how easily he becomes exhausted. He did have a little set-back 3-4 wks.
ago when he coughed & one of the incisions popped open!

He lost alot of blood, & finally stopped it & drove him⁽²⁾ self to the hospital! Now he has a foot infection from where they removed the veins! He's having too many problems he doesn't deserve!

Brad & I have become quite well-acquainted via letters & phone conversations. He is really a "character", & what wit & humor! He has sent me several of his piano compositions - most interesting & lovely pieces! Is there anything he doesn't excel at? His mind is very brilliant!

Of course he cannot yet travel here - we'd hoped he could be along to find the Bateman gravestone near Cincinnati. Instead, it has worked out that I am going to Calif. & spend a week with him - the week of July 18! I still can hardly believe it - we're excited about the "meeting", & will really "put our heads together" & make more Bateman connections!

Brad said to check for sure with you which you belong to - Colonial Dames, or Colonial Dames of the 17th Century? (I think it's the first, correct?)

I understand there is a chapter of each here in Toledo. I believe some of the ladies in my DAR chapter belong to Colonial Damer.

(3)

Also, which Bateman ancestor did you use?
Was it William?

What sort of proof is necessary for each generation?
I presently only have some documentation for the 6 generations back to my Aaron, but more for those should not be hard to get. Beyond that I have nothing — just the info in Brad's book.

Perhaps you can let me know a few more of these details. Are the application fee & dues very costly?

You evidently have much documentation for the Brooks & Richardson lines, too. What is the problem with the Bradfords?

It is so fascinating to have found all these other lines, too, with the extensive Bateman lineage!

Please write when you can.

Sincerely,

Barbara

MRS-
Dear ^Barbee:

Thank you for the information on your problem with your Supplemental on William Bateman. I presume that your chapter cashed your checks since one dollar probably was a State or Chapter Fee. Ten dollars is correct for the National Society for a Supplemental. I am asking our Headquarters Secretary to check the Pending File to see if your application is there. The Chapter should have sent checks to the Headquarters made out to the Treasurer General. Since these were in February and March, it was during the past Administration. However a record of all money received is kept in the office. The present Treasurer would not have the record as her books begin with April 5th.

If the Application is there it will be in the pending file. We have reviewed all the Supplementals up to the first of January of this year.

From my home Office I cannot do more than this at the moment, but when we reach Washington in March to do the remaining applications, we will check to see if it had some proof needed for which it is in that file.

Normally we correspond with Registrars in order that they take their responsibilities in assisting members in getting their proofs together --not doing the research, but checking to see if there is anything lacking before a paper is submitted. This saves the member the long wait in many cases.

However in your case, You did the right thing to write me. If the paper did not arrive, you should know about it, ~~a~~ and if we have it you need to know what is needed.

Sincerely,

Josie M. Baird
